Degree Path and Requirements:

Department Advising Notes:

Listed are recommended classes in all areas satisfying University of California Transfer Requirement; courses listed support a program of study in the history of art and visual culture. This is a recommended guide and other courses are available for you to take in certain areas--refer to the Catalogue of Classes and/or schedule an appointment with a counselor for more information. Transfer Requirements for California State University vary slightly.

Program Description

Students completing the AA degree in Art History will be able to analyze, interpret, and present ideas, utilizing the specific language of art, in the comparative evaluation of the techniques and methods, functions, and aesthetics of world visual cultures effectively; and in doing so demonstrate awareness and appreciation of the cultures, religion, and traditions of peoples of the world.

Career and Transfer Opportunities

The Associate in Arts Degree in Art History prepares students to transfer to a four year institution to pursue a BA degree, and/or for entry level gallery and museum work
