Department Advising Notes:

3 courses/ 9 units are required from the Major Electives List B. Only 1 course/3 units are required from Major Electives List A

Program Description

The student completing the Studio Arts AA-T will enhance their visual literacy through the acquisition of observational, technical and analytical skills.

Career and Transfer Opportunities

With a 4 year Degree Studio Arts majors can either continue their education in graduate school which would enable them to teach in the primary, secondary, or college level, or they can pursue jobs outside of academia such as, but not limited to, illustration- technical, fashion, medical biological advertising, etc. Students could secure jobs in design - product, transportation, jewelry, furniture, ceramic, textile, etc. Students could enter arts management - corporate art, art studio manager, artists' representative/agent, art consultant, film video, gallery public art administrator, etc. Students could also go in Art restoration, conservation, foundry work, painting services, etc.
