EMPLOYMENT OR OTHER CALIFORNIA DOMESTIC PARTNER RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES ACT
The California Community College System has been granted new rights, responsibilities, and obligations to indigent domestic partners registered with the California Secretary of State under Section 297 of the Family Code. If you are in a Registered Domestic Partnership (RDP), you will be treated as an independent married student to determine eligibility for the Enroll for Fee Waiver and will need to provide income and household information for your domestic partner. If you are a dependent student and your parent is in a Registered Domestic Partnership, you will be treated as a student with married parents and income and household information will be required for the parent’s domestic partner.

Note: These provisions apply to state student financial aid only, and not to federal student financial aid.

Are you married to your California domestic partner as determined by the California Secretary of State under Section 297 of the Family Code?
