

THE BUCK STARTS! HERE just ask us!

Financial aid is available to help you with the cost of tuition, books and fees. Apply for financial aid as soon as you enroll at ELAC.

You may qualify for grants, scholarships, fee waivers and low-interest loans.

Visit with a friendly financial aid counselor to see if you qualify even if you are employed, independent and living apart from your parents or unemployed. Ask for help and advice and don't let finances stop you from attending college.

Financial Aid counselors are located in E1-135 (after mid-November) or visit our website at www.elac.edu/financialaid

It's easy to enroll

APPLY - FILL OUT AN APPLICATION

Apply and register online at www.elac.edu. Application forms and enrollment processing information may be obtained from the Enrollment Center in E1-121 (after mid-November) on the main campus and from the South Gate Educational Center. Pick up a free Spring 2011 schedule and catalog for complete information on all courses and requirements. High school students enrolling in college courses must have a consent form signed by their parents and high school counselor. Remember, you cannot register for classes unless you have filled out an application.

SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

Submit your completed application along with your photo ID to the Enrollment Center, building E1-121 (after mid-November) on the main ELAC campus or the South Gate Educational Center's main office. Additional documents may be required to determine California residency. Please refer to the college website www.elac.edu for a detailed explanation of the enrollment process.

TEST TO FIND YOUR ENGLISH AND MATH LEVELS

Assess your basic math, reading and English skills before selecting your classes. Counselors provide a college orientation and will help you plan your schedule and learn about financial aid and other college programs. The testing center is located in E1-183 (after mid-November.)

SELECT YOUR CLASSES

Select your classes for the intersession by using this class listing. Check the college catalog on the ELAC website to view specific information on courses and click on How to Enroll Online. Pay tuition fees at the Fiscal Office located in E1-135 (after mid-November.)
