San Francisco State University, California State University-East Bay, San Diego State University, San Jose State University, Cal State San Bernardino, East Los Angeles College and the European Studies Association [ESA] invite you to participate in an exceptional educational experience: Summer Study in Paris 2011.

Since the Middle Ages, Paris has drawn students from around the world for university studies and for the experience of its cosmopolitan lifestyle. Celebrating our thirty-third anniversary, we have the staff, the background and the willingness to make your month in Paris worthy of one of the world’s great capital cities. In addition to classes, you will have the opportunity to improve your knowledge of French culture through our special civilization course. This course includes visits to the Louvre, the Musée Marmottan and historic neighborhoods. On weekends we will also visit the castle of Pierrefonds, the charming city of Colmar, picturesque Riquewihr, and the historic city of Rouen. We won’t neglect daily life in Paris either. In addition to a complete orientation program, we offer visits to historic districts, such as St. Germain des Prés and the Marais, and Paris’ only organic market. Our program is varied and extensive; in fact, the problem may be deciding which courses and activities to choose!

PROGRAM CHOICES

ESA offers you two program choices:
An extensive French language and civilization program including 15 hours of French class per week at the Institut Catholique de Paris

OR

A French civilization and survival language program with thirty hours of basic language training during the month, taught by ESA staff. All the fascinating civilization activities and lectures are included. We recommend this choice for those with no background in French.

The Institut Catholique de Paris

The Institut Catholique de Paris, a private French university of international reputation, will provide your French language instruction. Universities world-wide recognize and regularly grant credit for its excellent language courses. The Institut is located in the St. Germain des Prés area in central Paris, very near our dorm sites. There you will meet students from around the world, who, like you, have come to Paris to take advantage of the Institut’s fine teachers, up-to-date materials, and small classes. Like many private universities in the US, the Institut has a religious affiliation, but instruction is non-sectarian. ESA, the largest group at the Institut summer session, will handle pre-enrollment formalities and help you prepare for a placement test which will determine which course level is appropriate for you.

Institut Catholique Courses
(highly recommended for intermediate and advanced students)

I. French language courses, elementary to advanced:
15 hours per week [4 semester units]†
These classes offer high quality language instruction in conversation, grammar, culture and reading. Classes average 20-25 students and use up-to-date materials.

II. Business French:
15 hours per week [4 semester units]†
This special course is open to students at the advanced intermediate level. It prepares the student for the Paris Chamber of Commerce exams.

III. Teaching French as a Foreign Language:
15 hours per week [4 semester units]†
This course is designed for teachers of French and includes methodology, contemporary culture, lectures on literature and art history, stylistics and the teaching of phonetics.

* Depending on travel dates and airline. Check with ESA for current fares.
† Credits are given as a guideline only—see academic credit section.

SURVIVAL FRENCH LANGUAGE COURSE

This ESA course includes the basic elementary French you'll want to speak with storekeepers, café personnel and others in order to feel at ease in the Parisian environment as well as an introduction to French life—music, food, fashion, etc.. Thirty hours of instruction. [2 semester units]*

All ESA participants may attend the following courses according to your interests:

ESA CULTURE AND CIVILIZATION COURSES

ESA has designed the following courses to help you make the most of your time in Paris. ESA students are welcome to participate in all activities. (Because of the numerous activities in the program, there may be some course/activity conflicts.) There is no additional charge for the following:

French Civilization—Origins to the Present

An historical survey of the relationship between French political life, social structure, art, architecture and urbanism in the Middle Ages, Renaissance, 17th Century, Enlightenment, Revolution and modern period. Special emphasis on Paris as the center of French civilization. Approximately 12 hours of lecture plus guided visits in and around Paris. See calendar for list of visits. Offered in both French and English; some visits in English only.

Contemporary French Culture

Orientation to daily life in the French capital. Practical visits, information on food, music, etc.

Seminar in French Theater

Intensive reading, analysis and discussion of a classic or modern French play. Students will then attend a performance of the play studied. French only. Prerequisite: 2 years of college French or equivalent.

Tutorials

ESA's experienced language teachers offer a tutorial service to those wishing assistance with their classes.
ESA FACULTY
The program is led by Dr. Tom Blair, Dr. Yolanda Patterson, Mr. J. Vincent Morrissette, Dr. Dominique van Hooff, Dr. Terri Nelson, Dr. Lynn Vogel-Zuiderweg, Ms. Rebecca Ebin and Mr. Philippe Kreiter. Director of ESA since its founding, Dr. Blair is chair of the Foreign Language Department at City College of San Francisco. Dr. Patterson is President of the Simone de Beauvoir Society and has been the recipient of the Teacher of the Year award at California State University-East Bay, where she is Professor emerita of French and Women's Studies. Recipient of the CLTA outstanding teacher award, Prof. Morrissette is a faculty member at Fairfield University and Sacred Heart University. Chair of Foreign Languages at San Jose State University, Dr. Van Hooff has research interests in the relationship between painting and modern French literature. Dr. Nelson is chair of World Languages at California State University in San Bernardino and received the Outstanding Teacher Award several years ago. Dr. Lynn Vogel-Zuiderweg has many years of teaching experience at Santa Monica College and at the California Academy of Mathematics and Science. She is currently full-time faculty at East Los Angeles College, where she teaches both French and Spanish. Prof. Ebin has taught French at West Los Angeles College, El Camino College, and East Los Angeles College for the past four years and has led the East LA program to Paris three times before. Having spent a part of his childhood and youth in France, Philippe Kreiter teaches French and Spanish at Central Catholic High School, Portland, Oregon, where he also moderates the Latino Student Union.

ACCOMMODATIONS
Dorm:
Students stay in one of several well-located dorms in the St. Germain des Prés area of Paris. Each dorm has comfortable public areas—lounge, TV room, student kitchen, library, etc. To suit your tastes, each dorm provides either daily breakfast and dinner or breakfast only. More detailed descriptions will be sent on enrollment so that you may select the dorm you prefer—apply early for maximum choice. Singles are available at a supplement.

Other Lodgings:
A limited number of accommodations with French families are available. Hotel rooms and apartments may also be reserved at an extra charge. Please request further information.

MEALS
ESA helps students suit their eating tastes. Continental breakfast is provided at the dorm or with the family. You may also take advantage of the dorm kitchen. Our student guide, Paris pratique, includes a list of restaurants we recommend.

TRANSPORTATION
ESA has arranged a group flight on Lufthansa Airlines to Paris. Students taking the designated flights receive transportation to the dorm center at no charge. Students may choose to make other arrangements, but they are then responsible for finding transportation to the dorm.

ACADEMIC CREDIT
Included in the program fee are two to four semester or quarter units of residence credit in French from San Francisco State, San Jose State or CSU East Bay, at the lower or upper division level, according to your background in French, for those who take the full language and civilization program. Two university credit are earned in the Survival French program. Three to six units are available from East Los Angeles College, depending on your course selection. Registration information will be sent to you upon application to the program. This paper work must be completed before departure, and submitted no later than June 15. Late return of required documents and photos may incur a late fee of $100.

APPLICATION AND PAYMENT
ESA encourages early application as the number of places in the program is limited to about 75 participants. In addition, early application will better permit you to plan for the trip. All applications must be received by May 25, 2011. Payments may be made by check, money order or credit card (VISA, MC or Amex). Students who apply and pay all fees by March 1, 2011, are entitled to a 2% early payment reduction. To apply, complete the application section below and return it with your deposit check of $300 payable to ESA, 424 Dorado Terrace, SF, CA 94112. The balance of the fee is due April 1, 2011. Students applying after April 1, should check with ESA to set up a payment schedule. Participants who pay fees less than one month before the program’s opening date will be assessed a late fee of $250; any payment made after May 25 must be made by cashier’s check, travelers check or credit card—no personal checks. All prices reflect exchange rates in effect at the time of publication (Sept. 2010) and are subject to change.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY
All persons interested in participating in a study program are invited to enroll with ESA. Minimum age is 17. ESA does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, age or sex in any of its practices. The ESA program is designed for people without mobility impairment because of the restrictions placed upon us by the foreign locale.

COMMENTS FROM PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS

"Thank you for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity... In one month’s time, we saw a great majority of the important sights of Paris. It was incredible!"

“A wonderful experience! I highly recommend the program. Something for everyone.”

“Getting out into the neighborhoods helps a lot after the lectures. It makes Paris history come alive.”

“C’est la cinquième fois que je suis à Paris et c’est la meilleure. Le programme est merveilleux.”

“This was a very worthwhile experience. I feel that I know my way around Paris and have learned about the history and culture. When I added up all that was included in the price—room, breakfast, tours, metro tickets, etc.—my reaction was ‘WOW! Best bang for the bucks!’ It was great!”

“The major strength of the program was the clear desire of the faculty to make the program enjoyable, comprehensive, and a level above what one would expect from a more commercial venture. The residence and Institute were excellent choices, both relatively small and personal.”
