Once logged into PLATO you must follow the Learning Center and PLATO protocol below to avoid account suspension. Anyone caught violating the protocol will be warned & logged out of PLATO at the discretion of the lab staff.

1. If your instructor requires completion of mastery tests, please be advised that they are closed-material tests. Close all books, notes, other materials and devices before taking a test. If you are completing Plato work on your own, we recommend you test yourself by completing mastery tests without any aids such as notes or books.
2. Food and drink consumption is not allowed (only bottled water is allowed).
3. Use of computer for recreational activities such as games, social networking, movies, and online videos are NOT allowed in the Learning Center. Computers are for academic purposes only.
4. Phone calls must be made outside the Learning Center. Set cellphone to “OFF” or “Silent” mode.
5. ELAC’s Policy on Academic Honesty will be implemented. (See signs posted in Learning Assistance Center or class schedule or details).
