Problem: From the Class Search, the select option (">") is not available even though it is expected to display:

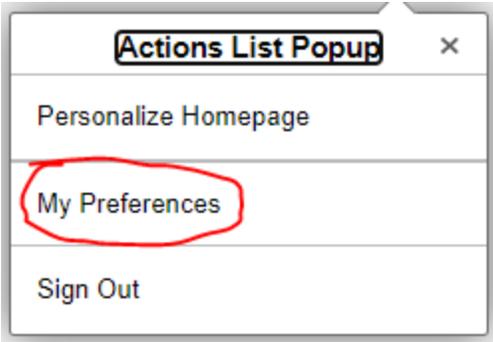

Note, the assumption is that the course is open and available for selection based on enrollment dates.
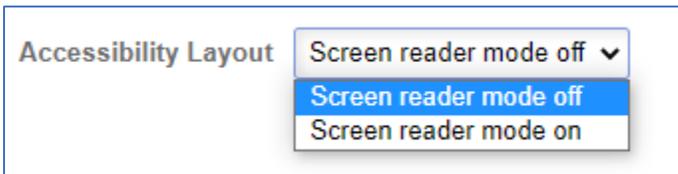

To Fix:

Please return to the homepage. Click the three dots in the upper right-hand corner:

Select My Preferences:

Select "Screen reader mode off":

Click Save:

Sign out:

Close all web browsers.

Open a new browser window, and login to the student portal and the select option (">") will be available.
